

PHILLIES AND CUBS LOCK HORNS AGAIN TODAY-ATHLETICS GUESTS OF WHITE SOX

HANK O'DAY AN AVOWED ENEMY OF "EMERY BALL"

Cub Leader Opposed to Use of Saliva Trick-Chicago Will Meet Phillies Again This Afternoon.

Hank O'Day, manager of the Cubs, who will meet the Phillies in the last game of the series this afternoon, the weather permitting, is an avowed enemy of the "emery ball" and the "spit ball."

In the appended terms Hank gave his views on the use of emery paper and saliva, as first aids to the pitcher: "I have always contended that the 'spit ball' was out of order. It is foreign to the game, and I think that anything foreign to the game should be ruled out."

"Contrary to popular belief, the pitcher does not grip the ball where it has been rubbed. Doing that would no doubt make the ball break more sharply, because of the added spin which the pitcher would get on it, but the idea of the 'emery ball' is to have a section of the surface rough and to hold that surface beneath the hand when the ball is delivered."

"Just to show how this thing works out, I once knew a pitcher who came from the Texas League, where the diamonds were bare. In that league, after a ball was hit a few times it became more or less fuzzy, and the result was that the pitchers could throw sometimes five or six feet. When this same pitcher was given a chance in the major leagues he was completely lost, because on the grass diamonds the ball remained smooth on the surface, and this fellow couldn't get it to break because he had been accustomed to grip one which was not smooth."

The Golfers' Aftermath

George W. Elkins, Jr., of the Huntington Valley Country Club, had a rather unusual experience in the annual initiation tournament at St. Mary's M. C. C. C. which has been playing excellent golf lately, according to this reporter's observation. He was going well at St. Martin's, and when he came to the 18th hole he was in a hole. He was so dispirited that he quit the hole, and after he had played out the remaining holes.

Those who have long admired the superior skill and the special personality of "Bill" Schmitt, the veteran pro at the Philadelphia Country Club, will be glad to learn that the golfer has been as vigorous as ever. He has been under the care of Dr. E. J. McManus, who has been a most successful golfer of considerable ability, and there is every reason to believe that he will be able to enjoy his favorite sport and also gain in condition.

The seventh hole of the Philadelphia Club has been almost universally considered the longest and most difficult hole in the country. Its length alone makes it a terror to all except the unusually bold and extreme driver. Measuring as it does 200 yards, the golfer who can hit a ball over 200 yards is a hero. The average golfer can hit a ball 150 yards, and the best of them can hit a ball 180 yards.

Perhaps no tournament held for many seasons has been so successful as the one which was held at the Philadelphia Country Club on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The tournament was held in honor of the club's 25th anniversary, and it was a most successful one. The prize money was $1,000, and the tournament was a most successful one.

Jack Thornton, who has qualified for the semi-final round of the Philadelphia Club tournament, will play in the semi-final round on Monday. He is a most successful golfer, and he is a most successful one. He is a most successful golfer, and he is a most successful one.

EDDIE PLANK IS DUPLICATING HIS 1913 PERFORMANCE

Last Season Veteran Was Going Bad at Finish, But Braced for Series-A's Meet White Sox Today.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 25.—Eddie Plank, Connie Mack's veteran sharpshooter, who, with Bender, is scheduled to bear the main pitching burden in the world's series, is duplicating his performance of last season. In 1913, Plank went well after the first few weeks of the season, until very near the close of the campaign, when he was forced to retire several times before he had fairly started his games. This was one of the reasons why all of the information on the Athletics-Giants series was to the effect that the New Yorkers would have better pitching.

But Plank improved and fooled all by pitching two of the most brilliant games of his career. In yesterday's game here, Eddie started, but was relieved by Wexhoff in the second inning. A few days ago in Detroit Plank began pitching, but had to have help.

Askin today the Athletics will go to the grounds with the White Sox. The victory of the Mackmen yesterday added much greatly to the pennant race. The Red Sox won easily from Ricketts' rookies in St. Louis, but the lead of five and a half games remained intact and the A's were another day closer to the flag.

LOCAL CLUBS AFTER NATIONAL HILL AND DALE CHAMPIONSHIP

Amateur Athletic Union Junior Cross Country Race Being Sought by Germantown Boys' Club and Others.

There is some talk of bringing the National Amateur Athletic Union junior cross-country championship race to this city. Secretary Meyer, of the Middle Atlantic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, announced that in all probability the event would be held here sometime this fall, as several of the local hustling athletic clubs were bidding for the honor.

The Germantown Boys' Club, it is said upon good authority, is eager to hold the event, but the names of the other organizations in the field were not named. An ideal cross-country run could be staged in Fairmount Park, and it will be pleasing news to the local hill and dale athletes to know that there is a likelihood of the national race being decided here.

A number of local athletes are training for the track meet to be held October 3, at the North Hill High School field, the Hale & Kilburn A. A. is the promoting organization. Entries close with E. J. Rankin, 126 Chestnut street, next Monday.

If the national collegiate championship cross-country race is decided in 1915 here, athletic followers will have another big feature of sport. An announced in these columns several days ago, the University of Pennsylvania has a splendid opportunity to secure the event if it takes the initiative.

Harry Froberg, one of Philadelphia's most popular brudders and jumpers, will appear in competition at the police carnival to be held at the National League baseball grounds, October 15 and 17.

C. D. Reidpath, who has not been seen in competition in the metropolitan district since he won the Olympic 400-meter championship, will be a competitor in the senior championships to be held at Celtic Park on October 3. The former Syracuse runner will wear the winged foot of the New York A. C. and will compete in the 100 and 200 yard runs. He may not be able to outfoot Coach Meyer in the short dash, but should have a great chance in the longer race.

A record number of entries have been received for the metropolitan track and field championships at Celtic Park, Saturday, October 3, and the entries are still pouring in to the committee. Probably the most interesting events will be the 100 and 200 yard dashes, in which D. Reidpath, N. Y. A. C., Olympic champion, and intercollegiate quarter-mile runner, competing against A. T. Meyer, I. A. C., present metropolitan champion, R. L. Stephenson, Trinity Club, J. Ravelin, St. Christopher's Club, F. J. McNally, New York A. C., F. Kaufman, I. A. C., and E. Maurer, N. Y. A. C.

Another event of particular interest will be the half-mile run, with Homer Baker, N. Y. A. C., national and English champion, running against A. R. Kiviat, national and metropolitan one-mile champion, R. R. Granger, I. A. C., who finished second to Baker at the national championship held at Baltimore, E. S. Fraser, I. A. C., Willie Gordon, York Springs, W. E. Gruchy, N. Y. A. C., and J. O'Connor, N. Y. A. C.

In the discussion there will probably be a duel between E. Muller, I. A. C., national and metropolitan champion, and J. H. Duncan, Bradhurst Field Club, present holder of the title. Both are in good shape, and it will not be surprising to see the record of 1:49 2/3 inches broken.

Hannes Kolehmainen, the world's greatest amateur distance runner, who returned to his home in Finland four months ago, unexpectedly returned to this country on the White Star liner Olympic Tuesday. The little Finlander's return did not become known until yesterday, when he reported to Coach Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, under whose colors he ran while competing in his native country.

Kolehmainen, who is eligible for the Russian army, had a difficult time getting out of Finland, as he was being sought out by bagmen and little money. He was obliged to go through a number of daring escapades with a friend who accompanied him as a rubber and assistant packman. Both are in good shape, and it will not be surprising to see the record of 1:49 2/3 inches broken.

JONES, OF PENN. "Bull," as he is familiarly known on the athletic field, is one of Penn's strongest football players, and he is receiving consideration as halfback.

GRIDIRON NEWS GLEANED FROM LEADING COLLEGE CAMPS

Pennsylvania Opens Up Its Season With Gettysburg Here and Fur is Sure to Fly With Teams in Shape.

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL

Every day marks some development for the better in the making of Pennsylvania's gridiron. First Head Coach Brooke brought about a decided improvement in the kicking. The return of Avery gave the Quakers a backfield man who could not distance and height to his punts. In addition to Avery two other promising backfield men have shown decided improvement in the kicking line. They are Irwin and Ballou, rival candidates for the quarterback position. Irwin has been used at quarter with more regularity than Ballou, and likewise has been used to do more kicking, but the latter has already made his reputation as a kicker, and when the time comes it isn't likely that he will be outdistanced by any one, with the possible exception of Avery.

Yesterday Brooke concentrated his preliminary coaching on teaching all the backfield candidates to catch kicks and to complete rest for the dictionary game tomorrow. The tremendous heat of the past week has resulted in a loss of weight with every man on the squad. To some of the men this was fortunate, but others have suffered. Still a scrimmage practice was absolutely necessary to secure the hardening required for a game.

Princeton men are showing a great deal of elation over the fine work of Holand, the former Lafayette player, now at Princeton. Holand was the life of the Tiger scrum last year, and he promises to develop into one of the stars of the varsity backfield this fall. He is so fast and strong that it takes a mighty good man to handle him. On top of this ability he heaves the forward pass with unusual accuracy and skill. In every respect he promises to give Princeton the combination man that the Tigers lacked in their backfield last year.

All the big teams of the East will get into action tomorrow. Pennsylvania's initial contest will be with Gettysburg, Harvard will meet Bates, Yale will tackle Maine and Dartmouth will play the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Cornell will struggle with Pittsburgh. There are old scores to settle in two of these games. Yale men have not forgotten the loss to which they were held by Maine last fall, while the memory of Pittsburgh's 20-7 victory over Cornell is still fresh in Ithaca. Both Maine and Pittsburgh have been shoved back several games on their respective schedules. Yale ought to win with something to spare, and on form Cornell should also be the victor over Pittsburgh. But the Ithacans have always been such uncertain quantities in their initial games in recent years, and Pittsburgh is known to be so strong, that to hazard a prediction on the result of this contest would be the height of folly.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 25.—The Princeton varsity had a long trial yesterday afternoon, spending with forty-five minutes of after-school practice.

The work has shown a great improvement in the last few days. The team is in much better shape. The varsity lineup is: Right end, Brown; left tackle, McLean; right guard, Brown; center, Brown; left guard, Hogg; right tackle, Ballou; left end, Ballou; half, P. Treisman; fullback, Law (Linn).

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 25.—Seventy-five varsity two touchdowns in a scrimmage scrimmage yesterday afternoon. The practice held their own in the various positions being scored on only once in a half hour, despite FOOTBALL GAMES TOMORROW Penn vs. Gettysburg, at Franklin Field; Harvard vs. Bates, at Cambridge; Bates vs. Maine, at New Haven; Princeton vs. Rutgers, at Princeton; Cornell vs. Pittsburgh, at Ithaca; Penn State vs. Westminster, at State College; Amherst vs. Bowdoin, at Amherst; Lehigh vs. P. and M., at Bethlehem; Goodham vs. Georgetown, at New York; Dartmouth vs. Mass. Aggies, at Hanover, Mass.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 25.—The opening of the football season here today saw the Yale coaches yesterday to put the men through a hard drill, although the scrimmage in the heat of the past few days has tired the men out, since they are not hardened after a complete rest for the dictionary game tomorrow. The practice was so hard, as it has been at the week.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—A mishap to the plumbing in the Percy Field Clubhouse yesterday drove the Cornell football players indoors at Ithaca. A drop of water was used in setting the pipes, and the water ran through the ceiling, and the players were forced to leave the building in a hurry. The Cornell football players will start next Wednesday.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 25.—For the first time in the history of the Yost regime at Michigan, a scrimmage was held yesterday. The scrimmage was a perfect one, and the players were in good shape. The scrimmage was held at the Yost stadium, and the players were in good shape. The scrimmage was held at the Yost stadium, and the players were in good shape.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 25.—With much cooler weather, an intensive practice of the Naval Academy football squad was held yesterday afternoon. The practice was so hard, as it has been at the week. The practice was so hard, as it has been at the week.

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Sept. 25.—Coach Geig has inaugurated a new plan at Swarthmore to make the backfield men more elusive and to develop their kicking. The plan is to have the backfield men practice kicking in the open field, and to have them practice kicking in the open field. The plan is to have the backfield men practice kicking in the open field, and to have them practice kicking in the open field.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE, Haverford, Pa., Sept. 25.—Light scrimmaging and a special drill were held at Haverford yesterday. The scrimmage was a perfect one, and the players were in good shape. The scrimmage was held at the Haverford stadium, and the players were in good shape.

AMHERST, Mass., Sept. 25.—With a squad of 25 men, including eight of last year's members, in daily practice and a team already rounding into early season form, Amherst will meet Bowdoin today. The Amherst-Bowdoin game here Saturday. The new coach, Kelley, who directed the University of Maine team, last year held Yale to a scoreless tie, has already gained the confidence of his first season here will be a successful one.

C. H. S. HANDICAPPED Material Coming From Centre of City Not Up to Mark. Dr. Alexander Howell, the Central High School coach, has a difficult task to overcome in developing new men capable of filling the places of the players lost by graduation. Although the candidates are very willing, most of them have a lot to learn before they are of high enough calibre to make the team. Before the CAPTAIN HUBBARD Hubbard is to lead the Muhlenberg football players on the gridiron this year, and he is proving a capable chieftain.

LESLEY CUP MATCH TO BE STARTED AT BALTIMORE TODAY

First of the Series of Golf Contests Likely to Be Very Interesting—Personal of Squad Announced.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The personnel of the golf teams which are to take part in the matches for the Lesley Cup, the first one of which will be decided at Baltusrol today, were given out officially last night. By virtue of being the holder of the trophy, the Massachusetts team stands out today and will have to do nothing more than practice, while Pennsylvania and New York lock horns.

The teams are as follows: Pennsylvania—C. F. Fowles, Jr., E. M. Byer, George Ormiston, J. B. Crockett, C. B. Buxton, Howard Perin, R. S. Werthington, J. R. Rose, L. M. Washburn, Clement Webster, M. A. Jones, W. Smith.

Massachusetts—Jerome D. Travers, Oswald Kirby, Fred Horshoff, Max Maratani, C. J. Sullivan, Gilman E. Tiffany, Archie M. Reid, Findlay Douglas, Roy Webb, E. M. Barnes, A. F. Kammer and Gardner W. White.

Massachusetts—Francis Guimet, Ray Gordon, John G. Anderson, P. W. Whittemore, S. K. Stearns, W. C. Chick, H. H. Wilder, Percival Gilbert, F. H. Hoyt, R. H. Brown, P. Tewkesbury and V. J. Lawrence.

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., Sept. 25.—A new professional record for the Bretton Woods golf course has been made by "Jimmie" Mackrell, of the Mount Washington Professional. Playing in a foursome with William Hitt, Davis Elkins and C. Y. McCormick, of Washington, Mackrell turned in a card of 87, going out in 35 and coming home in 52. "Alex" Smith held the old record of 90.

Some Big Football Games Are Scheduled Tomorrow and Will Mark the Real Opening of the 1914 Season. This is practically the opening of the district schools went into effect, a large part of the players who composed the teams came from the outskirts and suburbs of the city.

When all of them were compelled to go to the district schools C. H. S. lost most of its best material for the different teams. Their places must be filled by boys from the central part of the city who have never had the same advantages, and so it is that much harder for the coaches to turn out championship teams.

Chestnut Hill at Work Manager E. Cabell, of the Chestnut Hill Academy football team, has announced the following schedule: October 2, Frankford High School; October 9, Penn Charter; October 16, De Lancy; October 23, Episcopal Academy; October 30, Germantown Academy; November 6, Cheltenham High School; November 13, St. Luke's School.

L. and M. Moses Captain Diehl FANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 25.—When Franklin and Marshall meets Lehigh tomorrow it will be without Captain Diehl in the line-up. The shoulder bruise which he sustained in the first scrimmage of the season has kept him out of the game. Wertsch, a 220-pound tackle, lately arrived, will in part compensate the loss of Diehl. Evans, the Lancaster High School player, has been called up to fill the line. He is a fine player, and he is in the line of the Blue and White, but will not be in the Lehigh game.

Wetzel Returns to Lansdowne Frank Wetzel, Lansdowne High School's versatile athlete, has returned to school, and this will be a great help to the team. Wetzel was captain of last year's football and basketball teams, and also played on the basketball team. Coach Wieland has a likely looking bunch of candidates, and from all prospects Lansdowne will be well represented on the gridiron this fall.

Roped Arena Notes A good lightweight contest is scheduled at the Kensington A. C. tonight. The winner brings together Freddy Kelly, the New York champion, and Fred Kelly, the New England champion. The remainder of the card is a most interesting one. Eddie's well-known boys will be in the line-up. Eddie's well-known boys will be in the line-up. Eddie's well-known boys will be in the line-up.
